

RARE PLANTS: Sweet pinesap (Monotropsis odorata), sword moss (Bryoxiphium norvegicum), and French Broad heartleaf (Hexastylis rhombiformis); Watch List - Biltmore carrión-flower (Smilax biltmoreana), grotto alumroot (Heuchera parviflora), grotto felt (Trichomanes intricatum), Appalachian shoestring fern (Vittaria appalachiana), and seepage rush (Juncus gymnocarpus).

RARE ANIMALS: Peregrine falcon (Falco peregrinus), green salamander (Aneides aeneus), and eastern woodrat (Neotoma floridana haematoreia).

REFERENCES:

- Horan, P. 2008. Pers. comm. Information regarding treatment of hemlocks at Dunns Rock.
- Schwartzman, E. 2007. Site Survey Report: Dunns Rock. N.C. Natural Heritage Program, Office of Natural Resource Planning and Conservation, DENR, Raleigh, N.C.
- Wickland, D.E. and J.H. Horton. 1978. Botanical evaluation of the French Broad River Corridor. Tennessee Valley Authority.